17 _____)

18 On July 11, 2025, defendant Sarah Lynn Walls was charged by a Second Amended Petition for 19 Warrant for Person Under Supervision (the "Form 12"), with violating certain conditions of her
20 supervised release, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3583.

21 This matter came before the Court on August 11, 2025, for a further detention hearing.¹ The 22 defendant was present and represented by Mark Stuart Goldrosen. Assistant United States Attorney
23 Galen A. Phillips appeared for the government. The government moved for detention, and the defendant
24 opposed. At the hearing, counsel submitted proffers and arguments regarding detention.

25 Upon consideration of the facts, proffers and arguments presented, and for the reasons stated on 26 the record, the Court finds that the Defendant has not satisfied her burden to establish, by clear and

1 convincing evidence, that the person will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or to the 2 community. Accordingly, the defendant must be detained pending resolution of the Form 12.

3 The present order supplements the Court's findings and order at the detention hearing and serves
4 as written findings of fact and a statement of reasons as required by Title 18, United States Code,
5 Section 3142(i)(1). As noted on the record, the Court makes the following finding as the basis for its 6 conclusion: the defendant has not met her burden of proof in establishing that she will not flee or pose a
7 danger to any other person or the community, given, among other things, the defendant's criminal 8 history, her absence of stable employment and housing, and her alleged poor performance on 9 supervision, including her having been dismissed from the Creating Restorative Opportunities Program.
10 This finding is made without prejudice to the defendant's right to seek review of defendant's detention,
11 or file a motion for reconsideration if circumstances warrant it.

12 Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i), IT IS ORDERED THAT:

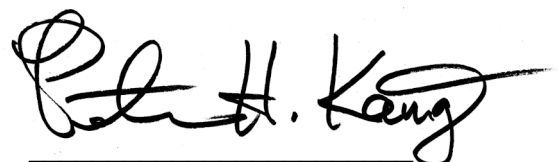

13 1. The defendant be, and hereby is, committed to the custody of the Attorney General for 14 confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving 15 sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

16 2. The defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel; 17 and

18 3. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government,
19 the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the 20 defendant to an authorized United States Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a 21 court proceeding.

22 IT IS SO ORDERED.
